

MANY PERSONS AT COUNTY HOME VISITING DAY

What was termed by officers of the Adams County Home Auxiliary as "the best Visiting Day so far" was held by the organization Saturday at the home.

An afternoon and evening of entertainment was provided. The Gettysburg High School band presented a concert during the afternoon and the Blue and Gray band provided the music in the evening.

Connie Stallsmith, Biglerville and Ronnie Orner, Bendersville, presented several tap dance numbers accompanied by the high school band during the afternoon.

Delores and Ronnie Orner and Miss Stallsmith later gave a specialty acrobatic number and Miss Stallsmith entertained with a trapeze act.

Paul McKendrick, Orrtanna, presented his "one-man band" act. Roland Kime was announcer for the program.

Rotarians are Waiters

Supper was served from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening with members of the Rotary Club serving as waiters.

Cakes and pies and other articles were sold. Funds raised through the sale will be used to provide entertainment, materials and other needs for the county home guests. One booth was set aside for articles made by the county home guests who were given the money realized from the sale of the articles made by them. For many, the money is the only "cash" they receive during the year.

Rio Grande Is On Rampage In Texas; Flood Swamps Train

LANGTRY, Tex. (AP)—Fourteen helicopters shuttled through rain-laden skies to rescue stranded train passengers today and still the rains poured on South Texas.

The traditionally lazy Rio Grande, which flows through the semi-desert land of South Texas, separating Mexico from the United States, awoke and roared.

The Weather Bureau said the river was headed for its greatest flood in history.

It spread into the low-lying river-side sections of Del Rio and Eagle Pass this morning. The two towns were believed to be in no immediate danger. The few residents in the low sections were evacuated yesterday.

Train Is Stranded

The Southern Pacific Railroad's Sunset Limited stood stranded by high water at Langtry, the famed southwest Texas town which old-timer Judge Roy Bean named after the woman he worshipped—English actress Lily Langtry.

Seventy Pullman passengers were evacuated by helicopter before nightfall yesterday. Weary but glad to be safe—the kids jumping with the excitement of a "copper ride"—the evacuees went into Del Rio for a hot meal at the hotel last night and were sent by train.

98 DEGREES ON SATURDAY HERE

The mercury hit a new 1954 high here on Saturday afternoon with a reading of 98 degrees and then dropped over the weekend as cooler weather arrived with the winds that at times were estimated at in excess of 30 miles an hour.

The strong winds were believed to have done some damage to ripening sour cherries but it will be several days before the extent of the damage can be determined. One report said cherries on the northwest side of the trees were "badly battered" by the winds.

Damage to apple and peach orchards was believed today to be negligible.

Saturday's high here made it the hottest day since the 100-degree weather early last September. It was the hottest June 26 here since 1938 when the high was 99 degrees.

Sunday's high was only a comfortable, breezy 96 degrees and the mercury dropped to 60 degrees overnight.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Are you a heel at the wheel?

The National Safety Council, which is coordinating a nationwide Fourth of July safety campaign, holds up six mirrors. If you can see yourself in any of them, then be prepared to become a holiday statistic.

The Me-First—this is the selfish competitive character who must be first away from the traffic light, can't stand to have anyone pass him, and risks the life of anyone who gets in his way.

The Big I—this is the fellow who is too big for the rules. Others can obey the law and a code of decent and courteous behavior, but not this self-inflated big shot. He's above all that.

The Know-It-All—this driver is good in his own estimation. He knows just what the other driver is going to do, just how fast he can stop, just how much room he needs to cut in on another car. But the only way this over-confident jerk escapes painful disillusionment is that the really good drivers give him a wide berth.

Converted Red Tells Of Mass Deportations, Racial Murder

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A former Russian secret police commander told in chilling detail today how he helped betray and deport a million of Stalin's subjects because they wanted independence from the Kremlin.

Lt. Col. Grigori Stepanovich Burlitski, 36, emerged into the glare of television floodlights to tell of racial murder in the Soviet Union. He has been hidden in the West for a year by U.S. intelligence agents. He deserted to the West last June but it was kept secret until he testified today before a U.S. congressional committee on Communist aggression, now in session here.

As the small, blue-eyed Cossack left the crowded committee room for the lunch recess, Chairman Charles J. Kersten (R-Wis.) told everyone to remain seated for one minute. This was to allow guards to whisk Burlitski safely away.

People Were Trapped

Speaking through an interpreter, Burlitski described how rebellious non-Russian peoples like the Checheno-Ingush Mountain people in the Caucasus and the Tatars of the Crimea were trapped by Soviet security forces in merciless "Trojan-horse" operations.

He told how a million people were fooled into believing Soviet Russian overtures of friendship so that they dropped their guard. Then they found themselves herded into cattle cars for deportation to the wastes of Siberia under the guns of men they had been entertaining as guests.

Burlitski said the Kremlin could not tolerate any independence movements so simply wiped out whole regions, leaving the land silent and deserted until new settlers could be found.

EXPECTS 8,300 TONS OF PENNA. SOUR CHERRIES

HARRISBURG—Fresh cherry pie time has arrived in Pennsylvania and along with it the first estimates of red sour cherry production, the State Department of Agriculture said today.

While the sour cherry harvest generally will not get under way in the large commercial orchards until the first week in July, some are now reaching local markets. Home-makers, bakeries and restaurants are demanding them as the "best for pies" and other desserts, observers said.

Preliminary estimates of the size of the 1954 Pennsylvania red sour cherry crop are for a harvest of 8,300 tons which is 2,100 tons more than last year, but 1,600 tons under the 1952 crop. The 10-year 1943-53 average for the State is 6,700 tons. Approximately 69 per cent of last year's Pennsylvania and Ohio red sour cherry crops were processed, chiefly as pie cherries. In 1952 78 per cent of the crop was processed while the 10-year average is 73 per cent.

Pennsylvania commercial cherry growers are pleased with the prospects this year. Most orchards are in Adams and Erie counties. The Erie County crop bloomed a little later than usual. Bloom was heavy but the set of fruit was light because of poor pollination weather, the Department said. Some frost damage was reported in that area. In the Adams-Franklin-York York belt some freeze damage occurred in April but prospects are for a good crop, according to the survey. The crop is generally clean in both areas.

Would End Third Shift In Textiles

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (P)—Kenneth B. Cook, former Rhode Island textile executive and now president of the Sunbury Mills, Sunbury, Pa., believes the textile industry is hurting itself by not eliminating the third shift.

Cook, former general manager of the Crown Mfg. Co., spoke yesterday in a "Newsmakers" TV (WJAR) panel discussion.

To panelist queries, Cook said the over-production problem of the industry could be beaten by elimination of the third shift. He conceded however, that little could be done in that direction until all manufacturers get together "and here's little of that."

Saying the industry is to blame for "most of its current ills," Cook said other reasons for its difficulties were: It has not modernized in most instances; it has poor management in many of its mills, and it has failed to develop new products.

THE Camera
COLUMN

By Dave Garfinkle

We've been talking about making scenic shots with a still camera during that summer vacation... but perhaps you're a movie camera fan, or include a motion picture camera in your equipment. If so, a lot of still photography technique applies in your movie making. A good tripod with a pan head, for instance, is a real necessity in scenic motion picture work. So is an exposure meter. The film and filters are the same as for still camera work: a medium speed panchromatic film, a yellow filter for general shots, a red filter when you want dark skies, brilliant clouds, and a lot of punch and drama.

But you have one difference in motion picture photography which is a great advantage... you can establish continuity in your vacation picture story. That simply means "beginning at the start and finishing at the end." Most amateur films have good endings... but very few have good opening scenes.

Here are a few suggestions. Get a shot of someone examining a map. Follow this with a close-up of a finger tracing the route you intend to take. Get shots of packing, inspecting of fishing gear or what-have-you, departure... including Dad locking the door, the car backing out of the driveway.

Such scenes dramatize the start of your trip... and they get your movie off to a good start. We can help you off to a good start on motion picture photography with the choice of movie cameras in our stock at DAVE'S PHOTO SUPPLY, 52 Chambersburg St., Gettysburg, Phone 83-W.

'ANGEL FACE'

Little angel face I love you... far more than mere words can say... with a smile like blushing roses... you can steal my heart away... eyes that shine brighter than starlight... pierce the very soul of me... radiant and most endearing... filling me with ecstasy... your sweet lips red as the sunset... kiss with warm and magic bliss... lifting me from worldly sorrow... taking me from gloom's abyss... baby face, soft as a flower... fashioned by the Lord above... you make life a thing of beauty... giving tenderness and love... I could search the wide world over... but there's naught to take the place... of the happiness and comfort... gained from little angel face.

TO DEDICATE
BASEBALL GAME

A meeting of the general committee and the individual committee chairmen for the Old Timers Baseball Game scheduled for Friday, July 16, on the Memorial Field at 8 p.m., with July 18, at 2:30 p.m., as a rain date, resulted in preliminary plans for parade, teams and prizes.

A big parade will precede the game with several musical organizations, the local Boy and Girl Scouts, two drill teams, the players themselves and others. The game is being staged for the benefit of the Community Ambulance Fund, which needs $750 to make the final payment on the new ambulance placed in use last week. The ambulance will be dedicated during ceremonies on the Memorial Field with an American Legion official giving the dedicatory address.

The purchase of the ambulance was a Legion sponsored project. Invitations are being sent this week to all former Littlestown baseball players to participate in this, the third Old Timers Game in the community. Last year Mel Spangler's Has-Beens defeated George Collins' Used-To-Be's, by a score of 13 to 7. The Old Timers will be divided into two groups, so that no one player need exert himself for more than a few innings. Insurance will be carried on each player. Prizes are being offered for the first hit, the first run, and so on.

There will be no admission charge to the game. Booster tags will be offered to anyone who desires to make a contribution for them. Robert J. Stonessifer and Sterling J. Wisotzky comprise the general committee on arrangements for the game.

Jumps To Death
From Moving Car

CARBONDALE, Pa. (AP)—Police report that Frank Hoover, 58, died yesterday as the result of injuries suffered in a suicide leap from a moving car.

The victim's son, Frank, 19, and a nephew, Jack, of Philadelphia, were struck and killed by a hit-run driver as they repaired a tire on Jack's car on a highway near Easton last June 6.

Police said Hoover's brother, Charles, made a futile attempt to prevent the man from throwing open the door of the car and jumping onto the highway.

River Hits Record

The Rio Grande at Del Rio, 60 miles down the river from Langtry, was at a record 40 feet this morning and still rising. Sixteen feet puts it out of its banks. Its previous highest in history was 35.5 feet in 1932. Del Rio is about three miles from the river bank and has a population of 14,211.

Eagle Pass, with a population of 7,276, and 55 miles downstream from Del Rio, was in more danger. The town itself is only about a hundred yards from the river. The Rio Grande there was up to 42.8 feet today and was expected to crest at 50 feet tonight. Its previous high was 49 feet in 1932.

New cloudbursts in the ranch and wasteland above Del Rio overnight sent the river coursing.

New wonder drugs have been so successful in treating cases of the plague that some doctors suggest that production of antipestiferum be discontinued.

They wore similar gowns, two blue and two green. They carried cascades of carnations, ivy, stephanotis, and delphinium with headdresses matching their bouquets.

Miss Sara Newell, Biglerville, R. 2, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a floor length gown of green shirred taffeta, and carried a basket of mixed summer flowers. Her headdress was of matching summer flowers.

The best man was Walter E. Young, York, and the ushers were Robert Sheeley and James Potts, both of York; Roland Anstine, York, R. 9, and Larry Newell, Orrtanna. Ronald Brockley, a brother of the bridegroom, was the ringbearer. The bride's mother wore a navy blue lace dress over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations, while the mother of the groom wore a sheer navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

To Reside In York

Mrs. O. W. Coble, Bendersville, gave a half-hour organ recital preceding the ceremony, and accompanied the soloist, Marvin Kime, Bendersville, who sang "At Dawn" by Cadman, "Because" by D'Hardelot, "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs-Bond and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Mrs. Coble also played the traditional wedding marches.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social rooms. After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Quebec, and the New England States. The bride wore a blue lace strapless dress with a matching jacket, white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will reside at 586 Madison Ave., York.

A heel at the wheel gets by because the good drivers give him the margin of safety he fails to give himself. But the heavy Fourth of July traffic will reduce that margin. Watch it!

SPLIT ON TAX

WASHINGTON (AP)—A three-way split among Senate Democrats over the big tax revision bill appeared likely today to give President Eisenhower a clear-cut victory on the measure — one of the biggest items on his 1954 program.

Floor debate opens in the Senate today with the leaders hopeful of pushing the huge measure through by Friday night. The House has okayed the bill, which would not change major taxes but would cut taxes receipts $1,400,000,000 in its first year of operation.

Majority Leader Knowland of California has announced extra-long sessions for the week. He is holding out the promise of a three-day holiday over the Fourth of July if the bill is passed by Friday.

Both Knowland and Sen. Milliken (R-Colo.), chairman of the finance Committee and floor manager for the measure, are predicting that the measure will be passed as the administration wants it.

EXPECT GOOD CROPS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department today noted some shipments of Pennsylvania grown wild cherries reaching the market.

However, the department pointed out that the season will not be in full swing until next week. Preliminary estimates of the size of the 1954 state red sour cherry crop call for a harvest of some 8,300 tons, 2,100 tons above last year's harvest but 1,600 tons under the 1952 crop.

PORK PRODUCTION DROPS

HARRISBURG (AP)—On-the-hoof pork production so far this year dropped four per cent under last year despite a 13 per cent national increase, the State Agriculture Department reported.

The department attributed the decrease to continued high cost of production. The 1954 spring pig crop totaled 533,000 born between December and June.

Today's Talk

TO BE YOURSELF

What a lot of hurdles we have to leap before we can actually think and act as we please, and be our honest selves. We play up to so many influences, forgetting the uniqueness of each one of us. How strange it is to have the man of character and independent mind pointed out to us as unsocial, because he has no time in which to engage in occupations that do not allow him to be himself.In one of Montaigne's essays I came across this sentence: "Miserable in my mind is he who in his own home hath no where to be himself; where he may particularly court, and at his pleasure hide or with-draw self." There is such a thing as being too lonely in the crowd. Too many people too far from us. Nearness is relative. We can feel close to God without even seeing Him. This is true of a genuine friend.One of the most famous of all quotations from Shakespeare is this one: "This above all: to thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."
When we fail to be our self, or try to borrow from another, we sell ourselves to a mortgage. We lose our independence and free will. Much of our pride is revoked.
How interesting are the ways of a child when left to its own self.
Something creative is working in that small mind all the time. If left to develop along natural lines who can predict the future of such a child?The human personality is one of the most attractive things in this world. This personality can make all the difference. It's what ties us to another. It is essential to leadership. No one without it can go far.
It's the personality of a man or woman which trade-marks him or her, sets each apart, and makes each outstandingly "different."
Be yourself and you are sure to be outstanding.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Servants All."

COTTAGE MEMORIES

The pleasant summer cottage days

Which were but are no more

for me,

I miss the little barber shop,

Had much to fret, but more to praise,

And all are now a memory.

I miss Lake Huron's gentle swish;

I miss my paper, three days old;

I miss the task of cleaning fish,

The drug store where ice cream was sold.

'Tis strange what looking backward brings

To be, as though alive, again.

I miss the double-jointed things

That buzzed against my window pane.

I miss the little barber shop.

Where there was much to hear and learn;

Where every man who chose to stop

Was quite content to wait his turn.

I miss the bench on which I sat

When I had time to settle down,

On what was going on to chat

With leading merchants of the town.

I miss the friendly wave of hand

That I received where'er I went.

The music of the high school

At every holiday event.

Of course, the cottage had its cares,

One: bathing suits still

The children left upon the stairs.

The feel of them I can't forget.

But though I know that it is vain

For by-gone joys to sit and wish,

Could all be as it was again

I'd gladly scrape and clean the fish.

FOREIGN AID
DEBATE TODAYWASHINGTON (AP) — The House today starts considering the 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid program amid signs the debate will range over the whole foreign policy field.The measure, always controversial, comes up at a time when many congressmen are irked at British proposals for a Far Eastern vised President Eisenhower that, unless he repudiates in "unmistak-support for a nonaggression treaty with Asian Communists, the entire foreign aid program "must be re-examined."

Cuts "Unjustified"

At the same time, strong elec-the measure are anticipated, despite the President's declaration that any cuts would be "unjustified and unsafe."The President seemed assured of considerable Democratic support in efforts to beat off major slices.

Under Pressure In Guatemala As Military Junta Takes Over Reins

By JACK RUTLEDGE

GUATEMALA (AP) — Leftist President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman resigned under the pressure of the army and military reverses last night. He handed over the government reins to a military junta headed by Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz, 39-year-old army chief of staff.Diaz in a broadcast pledged the army to continue the war against the invading exiles led by Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, but the switch in government appeared to signal the end of the Communists' strong influence on the regime Arbenz had led. Army leaders are known to have become increasingly opposed recently to the Reds' strong influence on the government.The ouster of the 41-year-old Arbenz followed reports of a big rebel victory at Zacapa, key railroad center 75 miles northeast of the capital. Army forces, particularly their artillery, were reported shattered there.

Support For Rebels

News of the army reverses was followed by a rising tide of popular support for the rebels, whose "RadioLiberation" had called Saturday for the armed forces to revolt, jail Ar-benz and form a military junta to negotiate a cease-fire.With the rebels reported last night some 70 miles from the capital and moving on it, the battle for Guatemalas was expected here to end within 48 hours. The Communists, backed by hastily armed and trained labor groups, were expected to try to keep up the fight, however.Diplomats in Washington specu-lated the army takeover was a maneuver to give the military a chance to negotiate the best terms it could from Castillo Armas and his rebel forces.Arbenz' resignation climaxed a day of mass defections from his cabinet by leading cabinet ministers, army officers and others who fled to the Salvadorean Embassy in Guatemalas City for refuge.Throughout the day the capital was tense, its streets empty and its stores with their iron shutters closed as the populace stayed indoors and listened intently to their radios.Anti-United States reaction spread through the city during the day as the Communist-dominated labor unions sent their members circling through the city in jeeps, shouting "Go home, Yanks." They also fired several shots.

OFFER 20 DAYS PAY TO FIRM TO KEEP PITS OPENTAMAQUA, Pa. (AP) — Hard coal miners in the Panther Creek Valley of northeastern Pennsylvania have offered to give up 20 days' pay to defray losses if the Lehigh Navigation Coal Co. cancels its plan to close mining operations in the region permanently.The offer to give up pay was included in a 10-point program adopted by the miners at a mass public meeting at Tamaqua High School Stadium yesterday. The miners hoped their program would keep the mines open.The contribution of 20 days' pay from employees of the firm would amount to about 1½ million dollars.At a meeting in Philadelphia last week, the board of managers of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co., the parent firm of the coal concern, decided to close the mines and write off as a failure a company back-to-work plan calling for increased production.

Closed Since May 3

The mines have been closed since homes, but the sentiment appeared to subside after Arbenz' broadcast

last night.

Arbenz bitterly attacked the United Fruit Co. of Boston, which he has accused of backing the rebel invasion in revenge for his government's expropriation of part of the company's vast holdings in Guatemala.May 3 when Lehigh said it could no longer absorb huge operating deficits. Early in June, it announced its back-to-work proposal but the Tamaqua local of the United Mine Workers refused to accept the plan.The local set up picket lines at all Lehigh operations in the Valley, thus preventing members of four other UMW locals, who had approved the plan, from returning to work. The Tamaqua local said half of the normal 1,200-man working force at Tamaqua colliery would remain idle under the plan.After waiting two weeks, the company decided to close all operations permanently. About 4,500 persons will be unemployed in the already hard hit anthracite area.In addition to securing adoption of the 10-point program, the Tama-qua local hoped to meet with Gov.
John S. Fine either today or tomorrow to enlist his aid in efforts to convince the company to change its mind.

Five Teams Waging Bitter Fight For Lead In Two Major Leagues; Traditional "Champ" Days Near

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Five teams are waging a bitter battle for first place by the Fourth of July—the date that tradition has marked as "Championship Day."

Since the turn of the century approximately seven out of every ten major league leaders on July 4 have gone on to win the pennant.

With only a week to go, no team is assured of the top spot on the midseason holiday. The New York Giants lead Brooklyn by one game today but the National League pacemakers face a "crucial" three-game series with the Dodgers at the Polo Grounds starting tomorrow.

Yankees Dangerous
Cleveland sports a 1½-game advantage over Chicago in the American League but the White Sox can dislodge the Indians with a sweep of their four-game series in Cleveland next weekend. A letdown by each could pave the way for the New York Yankees to bypass both of them. While the Indians and White Sox are at each other's throats, the Yankees will engage the second-division Washington Senators in a four-game set at Yankee Stadium.

The Indians widened their lead to a game and a half yesterday, salvaging the last of a three-game series from the Yankees 4-3 while Chicago was held to a split by Boston's Red Sox. Beaten 2-1 in the opener, the White Sox bounced back to trounce Boston 9-1 in the second game of their double-header. The loss widened the Yankees' deficit to three games.

New York's sizzling Giants maintained their one-game advantage over the Dodgers with an uphill 3-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs in 10 innings. Blanked by Warren Hacker with two hits through eight innings, the Giants tied the score at 2-2 when Whitey Lockman hit a two-run homer with two out in the ninth and won in the 10th when Willie Mays doubled, stole third and scored on pinch hitter Bobby Hoffman's single off loser Hal Jeffcoat. It was the Giants' 21st victory in 25 games.

Dodgers Beat Cards
The Dodgers equaled a team record by blasting five home runs to polish off the St. Louis Cardinals 8-6 for a sweep of their three-game series. Gil Hodges drove in four runs with his 19th and 20th homers and Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Junior Gilliam each had one.

Harvey Haddix, the Redbirds' brilliant left-hander, was the victim of all the home run blasts. They ended his 10-game winning streak. Preacher Roe failed to last the eighth but was credited with his third triumph.

Granny Hamner was the offensive star as the Philadelphia Phillies swept a twin bill from Milwaukee 4-3 and 2-1. The leading second base candidate for the All-Star team bunted a three-run homer to give Curt Simmons his seventh victory in the opener. Hamner tripled with one out in the ninth, driving in both runs in the nightcap.

Kryhoski's Day
Frank Thomas' ninth-inning single gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory after the Cincinnati Reds had won the opener 9-0 behind Corky Valentine's five-hit pitching. Ted Klus-zev drove in two Redlegs runs with a double and two singles.

First baseman Dick Kryhoski drove in the winning runs in each game as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 and 3-2 and climbed into sixth place. The double win gave the Orioles five straight following a nine-game losing streak.

Kryhoski, who extended his hitting streak through 18 straight games, singled in Bobby Young from second with the winning run in the 11th inning of the opener. His winning single in the second game came in the ninth and scored pitcher Joe Coleman, who registered his eighth triumph.

9th For Porterfield
Bob Porterfield, backed up by the homer hitting of Eddie Yost, Pete Runnels and Mickey Vernon, coasted to his ninth victory as Washington walloped Detroit 8-2 to move into a game of the fourth-place Tigers.

Homers by Dave Philley and Westlake and four-hit relief pitching by Hal Newhouser through six innings gave the Indians their hard-fought triumph over Whitey Ford and the Yankees.

Held to five hits by young Tom Brewer in the opener, the White Sox pounded three Boston pitchers for 13 hits in the nightcap.

NETMEN BEGIN QUARTER-FINALS AT WIMBLEDON

WIMBLEDON, England (P)—The world's eight top amateur tennis players were pitted today in Wimbledon's quarter-finals — and experts still were jittery about naming the future champion.

It is the most open all-England tennis tournament since World War II. Most of the excited fans were not at all sure that No. 1 seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati would make the final round.

Even London bookies, who will lay betting odds on almost anything, were uncertain whether they had the right man in the favorite spot.

Odds Lengthen
"He was even in the betting before his match against Sweden's Sven Davidson," said one bookie. "Now Trabert is still the favorite—but at longer odds of 6-4."

Trabert, his hands bleeding and blistered, scrambled to a five-set victory over Davidson 3-6, 12-10, 6-0, 7-6, 6-3 last Saturday.

All the quarter-finalists are in the seeded list with the first five "seeds" still in their swinging. Today is the time when fans will be looking for the upsets. So far form has run a true course.

Snake Farm Topic For News Feature

The Jungland Snake Farm, two miles from Thurmont, begun 21 years ago by Gordon Gaver, is the subject of a feature story in this morning's editions of The Baltimore Sun.

Gaver, a resident of Thurmont, started the farm by renting the old Catotini Furnace schoolhouse, when he decided others might like to see the snakes he kept as a hobby. The feature story relates that the "farm" now has more than 200 snakes, of which all but three, the cobras, can be handled easily by Gaver and his assistants.

The cedar waxwing is named for the small beads of red wax on the tips of some of its wingfeathers. The purpose of the wax is not known.

A large crowd watched the second-place Fairfield team edge the visiting Cashtown outfit 6-5 in a thrilling 10-inning Pen-Mar League game at Fairfield Sunday afternoon.

Fairfield rallied for three runs in the last of the eighth inning to knot the score at 4-4. In the top of the 10th inning there were two out when Bill Singley, Cashtown shortstop, blasted a 365-foot homerun to put Cashtown on top 5-4. However, in the last half of the frame Cornell walked after one was out. Dale Sites doubled and Jerry Deardorff singled down the third base line to score both runners to win the contest.

Blue Ridge Summit kept half a game ahead of Fairfield as the league leader pounded out a 14-8 victory at Thurmont.

New Oxford gained a tie with Cashtown for fourth place via an 8-5 triumph at Emmitsburg.

Union Bridge handed the winless New Windsor team a 6-0 setback on the winners' field.

The agent, Rubin R. Hull, 69, of Aiglen, Pa., was tied up at gunpoint. The robbers used two black knitted neckties owned by their victim to bind him in his own swivel chair.

An Israeli army spokesman admitted the crossing but said only a "small" Israeli unit was involved. He said the unit strayed across the border by mistake and one Israeli soldier is missing.

BOLT, STEWART FACE PLAYOFF

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (P)—Colorful Tommy Bolt and red-haired Earl Stewart Jr. meet today in a battle of Texans for top money in the $15,000 Insurance City Open Golf Tournament at the Wethersfield Country Club.

They tied yesterday at 271 in the 72-hole tourney, one of New England's major sports events, and were scheduled to start an 18-hole playoff today. The low score at the end of the round will be worth $2,500, with $1,800 going to the loser.

The 32-year-old Stewart, who combines a steady golf game with his ready wit, picked up five strokes on Bolt in a dramatic final round windup yesterday. While Bolt was having trouble with his putter and touring the 6,551-yard par 35-36-71 course in regulation figures, Stewart posted a 66, which included five birdies.

Julius Boros, Southern Pines, N.C., and former National Open champion, finished third with 273 for $1,400 to bring him within some $500 of Bob Toski, Livingston, N.J., the top money winner so far. Toski, who has a year ago, finished with 278 and picked up $245, which brought his earnings this year to $11,433.75.

Eastern League

Faced with a crucial series with the Eastern League-leaders, the Wilkes-Barre Barons were gasping for breath today after a jolting series with the Albany Senators.

The second-place Barons invade Elmira to tangle with the Pioneers tomorrow night, and must atone for the loss of a three-game set to the Senators that dropped the Barons four games behind Elmira.

There are no games scheduled tonight. Yesterday, the Barons outhit the Senators, 6-4, but lost to the home club, 2-1, as all the Senators' hits figured in the scoring.

Elmira took advantage of the Barons' loss by thumping the visiting Reading Indians, 6-2. Schenectady's Blue Jays tripped the host Allentown Redbirds, 6-1, and the Binghamton Triplets and Williamsport Grays split a doubleheader. The visiting Triplets won the opener, 9-3, and the Grays the second game, 6-5.

The fielding feature of the game was a sensational catch in deep center field by Bobby Rohrbaugh, centerfielder for Greenmount.

Wenksville kept right at the heels of the league-leaders by smacking out a 21-hit attack to rout Hunterstown 13-8 at Hunterstown. The home club took a 7-2 lead in the top half of the second inning but could not hold its margin. F. Garden And Building News

Rooms Five Bedrooms Two Closets Six
Cubage 20,000 ft.
Dimensions 27'x38'

There's nothing ornate or "fancy" about the architectural style of "The Berlin" yet its very simplicity makes this a charming home. Because of this simplicity, shingles or clapboards seem the ideal exterior finish; choice of color is, of course, up to the home owner.

Measuring 27'x38', "The Berlin" can be built on a 50 foot lot. Cubage of the house is 22,000 feet. No garage is specified in the accompanying plan but one can be built, if desired. A larger lot will then be required.

Although no fireplace is included in the living room layout of "The Berlin," one can be built by making such an arrangement with the contractor. If the home owner does want a fireplace he will find it considerably more economical to have it constructed at the same time as the house rather than to wait until some later date.

Since there isn't any dining room proper in "The Berlin," the living room will have to do double duty as a formal dining area. The room is so placed and arranged that it can conveniently serve two purposes.

Connected directly with the kitchen by a door in the left wall, the breakfast room is pleasant and spacious. One window provides sufficient light and ventilation for this cheerful room designed to be used at meal-time all the day through.

Located on the first floor in "The Berlin," the modern laundry or utility room is of generous size and can easily accommodate complete home laundry equipment. Quick and easy access to the back yard is provided by the door in the left wall.

Plenty of closet space and cross ventilation are features desired in any bedroom—features that the family living in "The Berlin" are certain of enjoying. A spacious linen closet, a broom closet, and a general purpose closet that can be lined with cedar, also help to solve the family's storage problem.

The only "must" installation in the basement of "The Berlin" is the heating plant; this should be placed under the living room.

CHOU EN-LAI FLIES TO BURMA ON "ALLIANCE"

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Red China's Chou En-lai flew to Burma today for the second phase of his campaign to enlist South Asian neutrals into a Peiping-organized "alliance for peace."

The Chinese Premier plans to spend two days in Rangoon for talks with Prime Minister Nehru before pushing on to Peiping.

His three-day visit to India left stern-faced Chou well entrenched with Prime Minister Nehru's government.

"Desirable To Consult"

Chou climaxed his stay here by suggesting that Asian chiefs of state get together periodically to work for peace and to evolve "mutual respect" pacts similar to the one India had signed with China April 29 to govern relations with Communist-occupied Tibet.

Chou's proposal for an Asian get-together drew no distinctions between Communist and non-Communist nations. He said it applied to the "principal Asian countries." He told newsmen in a press conference statement: "It is my view that, in order to seek common measures for the maintenance of peace and security in Asia, it is desirable for the appropriate persons of the principal Asian countries to meet occasionally and to consult with one another."

Garden Fence Adds Room To Grow Crops In Air

Tomato Vines Pruned and Tied to Fence or Stakes Ripen Earlier.

Air rights are a valuable asset to every vegetable garden. If used properly, some of our finest vegetables can be grown much better, if trained on a fence or trellis than if allowed to spread out on the ground.

Tomatoes, cucumbers, melons, squash, and both snap and lima beans of the so-called pole varieties grow better and are easier to grow if they are allowed to climb. For this purpose a picket fence four to five feet high may be built on the north, east and west sides of a garden plot.

Pickets should be spaced 3 or 4 inches apart, so free circulation of air is permitted and some sunshine may pass through. Around a garden of 1,000 square feet such a fence covered with plants would add 360 square feet or more to the effective area.

Climbing crops are planted at the base of the fence, which has no roots to compete with them for food. Sow seed six inches from the fence and apply plant food in a trench four inches from the seed. Thus the ground space will be no greater than one of the row crops needs.

Practically all the climbing crops are killed by frost, so seed should not be sown or plants set out until frost danger has passed. Tomatoes for growing in the air should not be of the so-called determinate vine class, which make vines too small for pruning. Large vine varieties are pruned to either a single stem, or two stems.

Pruning consists of pinching off every side branch that starts at the axil of a leaf, where it joins the main stem. This confines all growth to the main stems, and plants so pruned can be planted one foot apart. If two stems are desired, select one branch starting about 10 inches above the ground and allow it to grow. The side branches growing from this second stem should also be kept pinched off.

As the plant grows, it should be tied to the fence with soft cord which will not cut the stem. No leaves should be taken off, except in removing the excess side branches.

No special varieties of cucumber are required for climbing. The only pruning necessary is to reduce the vine growth so that it does not become tangled. Heavy cord should be strung on the fence for the tendrils to twist around and vines may need to be directed to these, when they try to wander over the garden.

Smaller varieties of musk melon do not require any special support for their fruit, but the larger melons will. Mesh bags saved from grocery purchases serve well for these. Some of the squashes also are heavy enough to need help in holding on to the vine until they mature.

Climbing snap and lima beans will need cords to support them, but they should not be pruned. In addition to their yield of food, they provide an attractive background for the garden.

When desirable to spray or dust vine crops to protect them from insects and disease, this is much easier to do if they are climbing, than when they are sprawling. All surfaces can more easily be reached. Harvesting requires no bending over, and the sun has a better chance to ripen the fruit.

FIND GIRL, 4, AFTER 40 HOURS IN MOUNTAINS

MARKLEEVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Little Kathy Paxton, who survived more than 40 hours without food or shelter in the High Sierra wilderness with no more serious consequences than a couple of bumps, is going back to Woods Lake to finish her vacation today.

The red-clad 5-year-old was located up the granite cliffs 1½ miles from Woods Lake yesterday by Alvin Van Dell, 30, a timber cruiser. He joined the search "because I knew the country around there."

Van Dell and a friend, Louis Avery, started to work the high country because they thought others among the 500 looking for Kathy had thoroughly worked lower lands.

Woods Lake is at the 8,500-foot elevation near Kit Carson Pass on the ridge of the High Sierra.

Found Footprints

They found Kathy's footprints—but lost them. After circling fruitlessly, Van Dell called, "Lou, Lou" to Avery.

But it was Kathy who answered. "Why don't you call me?" she piped from a nearby ledge. She had been sleeping in a crevice when Van Dell called from only a few feet away.

She was rushed to search headquarters, where a doctor from Stead Air Force Base near Reno was waiting. Aside from a bruised eye and a chipped tooth suffered in a fall, plus not having eaten for more than a day and a half, Kathy was declared all right.

"Never Was Scared"

Kathy disappeared Friday evening. She said she drank water from a hole but had nothing to eat. "At night I lay down on some pine needles," she said. "It was awfully cold."

New President's Wife In States

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Senora Carlos Enrique Diaz, wife of the new President of Guatemala, was too ill last night to be awakened and told that the government had been turned to a military junta headed by her husband.

Mrs. Diaz, in New Orleans recovering from an operation, is scheduled to return to Guatemala as soon as a flight can be arranged. Her party includes Maj. Daniel Caceres, secretary to the new President, and his wife and daughter.

From 1920 to 1953, per capita production of steel in the United States rose from 886 pounds to 1,398 pounds.

It was 34 degrees each night. Proudly, she added: "I was never scared."

SHRINERS OPEN CONVENTION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—They're here. And this resort city braced itself today for a week of capering and clowning by those fun-loving Shriners.

Thousands of members of the Ancient Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine began pouring into town by train, plane, bus and yacht yesterday for the opening of their annual Imperial Council session.

Thousands more arrived today for the six-day convention which will be highlighted by at least four big parades and a stage show—with proceeds going to the 17 Shrine hospitals for crippled children.

The famed Boardwalk was jammed with Shriner strollers, each wearing the brilliant red fez with a long black tassel.

BANK PRESIDENT DIES

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Forest Frank Hendrickson, 84, president of the Green Ridge Bank since its establishment in 1910 and former president of the Eureka Specialty Printing Co., died at his home yesterday.

A native of Jackson in Susquehanna County, he was believed to be the second oldest bank president in America. He was also former secretary and general manager of the printing firm.

A co-founder of Eureka, he served as chairman of its board of directors until his death.

Al Rosen, slugging star of the Cleveland Indians, is the Ohio distributor of a canned soft soft drink.

On tap tonight is a mardi gras on the boardwalk, complete with band and chanter serenades. About 50,000 Shriners in all are expected for the convention.

REFRIGERATOR CHECK LIST

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Do you know what to look for in a refrigerator? Many householders confronted with this problem for the first time find it puzzling. There are so many decisions to make—whether certain features are worth extra cost, how large a refrigerator is necessary for a particular household, whether to buy white or colored appliances.

The first decision is size. An 8 cubic foot refrigerator usually is recommended for a family of three, a 10 cubic foot refrigerator for a family of 5 and 11 to 15 cubic feet for households of about 8 persons.

A frozen food compartment is a great help to the woman who must plan food in advance, who has a husband and children who takes sandwiches for lunch, and who wishes to reduce food cost by careful quantity buying.

Perishable Container

Homemakers who prefer fresh vegetables may favor a refrigerator equipped with a larger vegetable container or crispers. These are containers in which fruits, vegetables and other perishables may be stored without losing top quality.

Some refrigerator models offer additional storage space on the inside of the door which helps expand the size of a refrigerator.

Check shelf accessibility. New models have shelves that roll-out. Others are of the "lazy Susan" type which do away with blind reaching or accidental spilling of stored foods.

Automatic defrosting units erase the task of defrosting requiring the removal of the contents of the refrigerator. Often a refrigerator takes so long to defrost that frozen foods are spoiled.

Need Roomy Model

If you entertain often you will not only want a roomy refrigerator to hold the multitude of dishes you may make in advance, but you'll probably want a refrigerator that produces a large number of ice cubes rapidly. Newer refrigerators produce a batch of ice cubes in about 90 minutes. Some continue to make ice cubes automatically as they are removed from the tray.

There are many pastel colored kitchen appliances of porcelain enamel on the market. There are cheerful blues, green and yellows for a purchaser with an eye for color and design. But white is a best bet for long range planning. You can put all your color into kitchen accessories which may be changed when you grow tired of them.

United States, Britain And France Can't Afford A Split In View Of Threat From Reds

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Big Three — the United States, Britain and France — could hardly afford a split if Russia attacked. They'd have to fight, and together, or surrender. They wouldn't have the luxury of time to discuss their differences.

They have that luxury now, and are using it, because they are not in a hasty war but in a long-range one. In the end the long-range war may be just as fatal. The Communists are inching ahead, as in Indochina.

The fact that President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles and Prime Minister Churchill and Britain's Foreign Secretary Eden are here discussing their differences is testimony to the fact that they do have time.

None of them knows how much. Meanwhile, the Allies, including the French, act in their own individual interests and debate their differences.

French Can't Pay

The French held Indochina as a colony while not under pressure to do otherwise. When the Communist-led Vietminh challenged them, the French showed they would make only limited sacrifices to hold what was theirs.

They sent no draftees into Indochina. That has been a war fought by French volunteers, and Germans and others in the Foreign Legion.

And in the past year the French, who pay a lot less in taxes than the Americans, weren't even able, or willing, to pay for their war in Indochina. The United States was carrying 78 per cent of the cost.

When they reached a crisis in Indochina, and didn't get direct American intervention, there was no word from Paris the French would step up their fighting with draftees. They began at once to look for a truce.

Balk European Army

In Europe they have stalled for years about joining the single European army which this country considers the only true bulwark against future Russian intentions of attacking the West.

If the French approved creation of that army, and joined it, Germany would be allowed to rearm at least to the extent of providing 400,000 troops for the single army to serve beside the French.

The French fear of a rearmament Germany, even to a limited degree, so far has been greater than their fear of a Russian attack if the single army isn't formed. Split to pieces by internal politics, they seem incapable of acting.

And they may make a truce with the Communists in Indochina that will leave open to them not only the whole country but all Southeast Asia unless the Allies can form a military alliance to prevent further Communist moves.

Political Problems

The United States, in turn, since it wasn't willing to send troops or planes into Indochina, is in a strange position to object to the kind of truce the French make. After all, the French did the fighting and the dying in that war.

The Eisenhower administration also has political problems to think of. It helped itself to office in 1952 by criticizing the Democrats' conduct of the Korean War. With the November congressional elections coming up, the administration has to think twice about sending any more American troops into Asian fighting.

Secretary of State Dulles now reportedly has a plan — a military alliance of Britain, France and other non-Communist countries — to protect Southeast Asia after the truce in Indochina. But he has never spelled it out to the public.

In short, the United States would like to stop communism in Asia but, because of the possible consequences, has been less than willing to go all-out.

The British have some interest of their own in not wanting sudden war or getting mixed up too fast in an American plan which might precipitate all-out war. The British are closer to Russian atom bombing if the big war does start.

They, being a nation of traders, would like to trade with China, always in the hope this might split China away from Russia someday.

In addition, the British have to consider the attitude of their Commonwealth nations, such as India, whose Prime Minister Nehru stands flatfooted against war by the West in his continent.

GIRL REPORTER, MRS. ROOSEVELT WRITE BOOK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Lorena Hickok have co-authored a book on women in public affairs. Entitled "Ladies of Courage," it includes a chapter on "How To Break Into Politics."

Miss Hickok, as a reporter for The Associated Press, traveled on the 1932 Franklin D. Roosevelt presidential campaign. During the inauguration festivities she obtained exclusively for The AP the first interview ever given by a first lady in the White House to a reporter.

Miss Hickok later became executive secretary of the Women's Division of the Democratic National Committee, where she saw first hand the successes and errors of women climbing the political ladder.

The book recounts the careers of women of both major political parties, Republican as well as Democratic — and in this Miss Hickok, who did the "leg work" (newspaper talk for digging out the details), shows her training in the non-partisan AP.

"I like it," said Katie Louchheim, present director of the Democratic committee women's activities.

"Good," said Katherine Howard, former Massachusetts Republican committee-woman and now deputy federal civil defense director.

The book, however, is aimed at would-be women politicians. (Men politicians who have to deal with 'em could benefit by reading it.) It tells the woman dreaming of a "Call me Madame" career for herself or of knocking down a large political plum for her husband.

"Whatever your ambition, if you want to be a leader of women, keep it buried out of sight. Don't ever let your women colleagues get the idea that you are after something for yourself — or your husband. It can be fatal."

Women Show Loyalty

But the authors say that if you can convince women you are sincerely working for the objectives in which you all believe, "they will follow you with an enthusiasm and loyalty somewhat rare among the males."

The authors laid down "a cardinal rule for a woman political leader" to back other women. "If a woman is running for office, get behind her," they say. "If she gets a job, don't look snifty and murmur 'How did she rate it?'"

They urge women, too, to remember it takes money to make the political mare run.

CENTER CHIEF SAYS MUSIC'S FUTURE RESTS IN "COUNTRY"

NEW YORK (AP) — "The whole future of our music and its development is out in the country, not here in New York."

"The American composer may be published here, but he's played out there."

"He's sold out there, he has time to write out there, he doesn't need to waste his energy living here and battling the big city and fighting all its cliques."

So we're told by a man right in the middle of the business, Ray Green, executive secretary of the American Music Center. It was organized 15 years ago and, in living up literally to its title, has no rival.

Creative Communities

Green mentions the first half-dozen or so important creative communities that come to his mind: "Louisville, Cincinnati, Los Angeles, the Atlanta-Birmingham area, Rochester, the University of Michigan, the University of Washington."

"They've developed within the last 10 years," Green says, "and a lot of this growth has come since the war. An example of it is the hundreds of new operas that have been performed. We in New York don't know the names of the composers, but they keep cropping up.

"And when they come to me and wish they were living in New York, I tell them, 'Don't do it.'"

Solves Problems

Green is here, lives and works here, has his 15-man board here. When the National Music Council, the International Music Council, the National Federation of Music Clubs or some other music organization has a problem, it's apt to drop it in Green's lap.

He can supply premises for small meetings, he can locate missing composers, he can assemble catalogues of specialties, he has scores and recordings, he rents or sells music, he finds publishers, he does everything — he even writes music himself.

Can't the libraries provide interested people with this kind of information? "Libraries get it from us."

Began On Shoestring

The organization began on a shoestring. There were five composers: Marion Bauer, Aaron Copland, Otto Luening, Quincy Porter and Howard Hanson, all still on the present enlarged board, of which Luening, of Columbia, is chairman.

They had $500 granted by a foundation; their purpose was to "foster and encourage the composition and distribution of contemporary American music and its study and performance at home and abroad."

They set up a library of scores for sale and rentals; they even got money for performances regularly from the Boston and New

MOTHERS FIND PINAFORE FROCK EASY TO SEW

By The Associated Press

Pinafores are a summer must for little girls.

When hot weather comes, an active moppet can be rough on clothes, and mothers insist on garments that can take a beating, breeze through wash day and still look pretty. Women who sew know that the pinafore is the answer in all categories, and start early to stitch up a summer supply.

Sewing Hints

Any commercial pattern book offers several pinafore patterns but local sewing center experts suggest a couple of tricks for easier sewing and longer wear.

Select a pattern with a straight strap over the shoulder. Then, instead of having a single non-adjustable strap, cut the piece about six inches longer than the pattern calls for, and cut it in half. Finish the edges and tie the ends in a rabbit-ear knot on the shoulder.

Allow For Growth

For the first summer, it gives a perky look and opens flat for quick ironing. For the next year, it can be fastened by buttons or snaps on the ends. In this way the American music at a time when, as they recollect painfully, "it was easier for a European to get published here than an American."

Introduce Newcomers

They played an important part in introducing to the concert public the music of Charles Ives, Carl Ruggles, Edward Varese, Virgil Thompson, Walter Piston, and many others. They now have some 5,000 titles in their library.

How do they make both ends meet? Green says perhaps they don't; they just pretend to. They are paid for assembling information, they receive some support from ASCAP and BMI, and there have lately been some college and university memberships. One recent project, a comprehensive catalogue of only American music printed only by American publishers, started off with a Rockefeller Foundation grant.

Centers modeled on this one have been established in Amsterdam and Paris.

Green came to the executive post after a sort of cross-the-country career. Born in Cavendish, Mo., he studied at the San Francisco Conservatory and the University of California. From 1946 to 1948 he was chief of music for the Veterans Administration. He is married to dancer May O'Donnell. One of his recent compositions, which are written out of native American inspiration and materials, is the newly recorded "Sunday Sing Symphony."

Patrol Police Get Massacre Reps

OSCEOLA, Iowa (AP) — Iowa Highway Patrol cars carry large signs across their backs, showing the traffic fatality toll in the state for the year — "184 killed in '54."

The other day when a patrolman stopped his car for a stop sign here, two small boys walked toward the rear of the car. One said, "Let's see how many this one's killed."

Gambler Nabbed Before Game Begins

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Asked how he pleaded to a gaming charge, the defendant replied:

"Not Guilty. I was just getting ready to join the game, but the police arrived before I did."

City Judge Charles Kelly dismissed the case.

waistline as well as the overall length is dropped to allow for growth.

Wise mothers also save time and trouble by using the assembly line technique to make several pinafores at once. Cut all by the same pattern at the same time, in different fabrics of approximately the same weight, so you can do all machine stitching without changing thread or tensions.

Reception Is Held

Miss Mary Flickinger, R. 3, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white dotted Swiss dress and carried a basket of pink roses.

A reception was held in the social room of the church immediately after the ceremony. After a week's honeymoon the couple will reside at York Springs, R. 2, where the groom is engaged in farming with his father. The bride wore as her going-away ensemble a pale blue suit, white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride, who was graduated from the Biglerville High School this month, is employed as a telephone operator in York Springs. Her husband was graduated from the York Springs High School this month.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Mary Fritz, Bedford; Mrs. Bernadine Miller, Johnstown; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matlack, Camden, N. J.

ANTI-REDS WILL NOT RECOGNIZE COLONEL DIAZ

TEGUCIGALPA (AP) — The anti-Communist rebel radio said today "we do not recognize" the new Guatemalan government of Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz.

It warned insurgent war planes will launch a "general attack" on military targets in Guatemala City if the rebel conditions for peace are not met.

The clandestine insurgent radio heard here said Col. Diaz would have until 8 a.m. CST to reply. But the rebel radio was still repeating the warning at 8:20 a.m. The Guatemalan government radio was broadcasting music at 8:20 a.m.

The rebels declared "we fight a system, not a man" and said the same seven conditions "for peace and order" which they broadcast last Saturday still stand.

Urge Army Junta
The rebels Saturday urged the army to form a military junta, arrest Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, then president, and "all other Communists" and join the rebels in forming a new government. Arbenz quit last night and Diaz took over as head of a ruling junta.

The insurgent warnings this morning said if their conditions are not met:

"Our air force has its precise instructions for today:

"1. A general attack on all military bases in Guatemala City.

"2. A concentrated attack on one in particular." (This target was not identified.)

The "Liberation radio" called on Col. Diaz to "let us know or we will hit him (the targets) one by one until they are all destroyed."

The rebels appealed to the Guatemalan army not to obey the new chief.

"The army should not let itself be deceived," the broadcast said.

"We fight a system, not a man. Our struggle is against communism until it is thoroughly uprooted from our soil."

HARD ROCK ADS

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP) — Neither sleet nor snow may stop the mail, but this could slow it down! The Greater Vermont Assn. has received a request for two million pebbles, to be used in an advertising program. They'll be mailed individually, if that's any consolation to the mail carriers.

NAVY GIVES HELP

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The South of Broadway Assn. at its luncheon meeting reached the time to pledge allegiance to the flag. But no flag. A member looked out the window, spotted a destroyer tender in the harbor with the Stars and Stripes flying. Members turned right-face, eyed the distant flag and pledged allegiance.

Extra March Of Dimes In August

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has announced an "emergency March of Dimes" Aug. 16 to 31 to raise an additional 20 million dollars.

Basil O'Connor, foundation president, said yesterday that the regular drive last January, which set a record of 55 million in contributions, still fell short of the funds needed to carry on foundation activities.

The extra money is needed, O'Connor said, mainly to evaluate the Salk polio immunization trials and provide gamma globulin vaccine.

LONDON PRESS SAYS CHURCHILL WINS OVER IKE

LONDON, June 28 (AP) — All but one of London's morning newspapers told their readers today that Prime Minister Churchill is winning American approval for Britain's go-slow policy in Southeast Asia.

The independent and influential Times, in its account of the Washington talks, said that "even now agreement seems no nearer."

But headlines in other morning papers left a different impression. The Daily Mirror, a pro-Labor tabloid, said: "Churchill and Eden putting the brake on Ike."

The Mirror's Washington correspondent said flatly:

No Early Alliance

"There will be no rush into united action in Southeast Asia and there will be no immediate Southeast Asia alliance of the Western Powers — on the lines of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization — as America wished. . . .

"The Anglo-American policy in Southeast Asia now will be 'wait and see' — but at the same time both governments will maintain a state of 'vigilant preparedness'."

The Daily Sketch, a conservative tabloid, carried a similar story under this boxcar type headline:

"Winston doesn't like Ike agrees with his plan."

The Communist Daily Worker headline: "U.S. bows to Churchill on Far East."

City Tax Boost Speeds Payment

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Harrisburg citizens apparently are more willing to pay a $10 city per capita and residence tax than a $5 levy.

The City treasurer reports that the percentage of residents paying their taxes early has risen steadily over the years.

Even though the total tax was recently doubled the number of people paying the first two months was up slightly.

DANISH FOOD DRAWS RAVES OF GI DINERS

KOLDING, Denmark — American kitchen techniques are getting a big hand from an unexpected source.

The pat on the back comes from Paul Melvang, manager of the Danish Dairy Products Export Board. He told 11 visiting American newspaper food editors from 10 states that when the bottles of fresh milk, shipped daily from Denmark to our armed forces in Germany, come back empty they are cleaner than any others returned to the dairies. That is no slight tribute because since 1946, $25 million bottles of fresh milk have been exchanged between Americans and Danes in this way.

Taking part in a program arranged by the Agricultural Council of Denmark, the Federation of Danish Co-operative Bacon Factories, and the Federation of Danish Dairy Assns., the food editors visited the places that supply our armed forces in Germany with milk, cream, cheese, butter, eggs, bacon, ham and frozen fish. They also toured the co-operative bacon and ham factories, fish canneries and dairies that prepare foodstuffs for the United States market.

Did Taste-testing
Not content with inspecting, the American visitors did plenty of taste-testing. With small wooden paddles they dipped into gigantic steel cranks of fresh cultured butter, drank milk and buttermilk, nibbled at endless varieties of cheese, ate generously of ham and other meats, and agreed with our GIs that the little country of Denmark knows its foodstuff.

In one instance, however, it took GIs time to make up their minds: when the Danish cultured butter was first served them, they were skeptical; after about two weeks they turned gourmet and decided it was very much to their taste. When it comes to cheese the GIs prefer Blue and Samsoe to other Danish varieties. Not so well known as Blue, although available in the United States, Samsoe is a golden mild cheese with a rich and nutty flavor and the "eye" formation associated with Swiss cheese.

To collect Danish menus and recipes, the food writers visited a Jutland Domestic Science College where pupils displayed a week's meals for farm families planned around necessary nutrients. When we were told that the girls, from 17 to 21 years, were at the school to learn how to keep homes of their own, I asked the fairest and prettiest youngster when she was going to be married. She hesitated, then looked down and said, "I have not been asked."

I assured her we had the same problem in the United States!

Danish Hash

The foods on the supper table at which she presided consisted of Danish Hash (Biksemad), made of cooked beef and boiled potatoes cut in large squares and fried in butter with minced onion, then topped with fried eggs. Grated carrots — American-style — were served with liver paste and parsley. Sliced sausage, creamy cheese studded with caraway (Christian IX), and bread and butter completed the menu.

The Sunday dinner menu consisted of roast shoulder of pork, red cabbage, potatoes, bread and butter, preserved fruits and whipped cream. The pork was scored, brushed with gravy coloring, sprinkled with salt and flour and roasted to a crisp golden-brown. The red cabbage was seasoned with butter, vinegar and sugar. The fruits were pears and plums.

In Copenhagen the food is, of course, more sophisticated. Lunch or dinner often starts with a plateful of the famous Danish shrimp — each no bigger than a fingernail.

At the delightful Zoo restaurant, where you can sit indoors or out and watch the animals, a particularly delicious luncheon was served that could be duplicated in the United States. Here the first course was a salad of boiled lobster, asparagus tips and sweet red pepper dressed with oil, tarragon vinegar and mustard. The main course was lean sliced ham — the sort Danes have learned Americans like and which they pack in 1, 2 and 4 pound cans for export. The ham was glazed in American fashion with spices and sugar, and served with an array of cooked vegetables. The dessert was a cheese soufflé made in the standard way except that Samsoe cheese was used in it. Try this deluxe menu when you are entertaining visiting Danes, or when you want to impress your hometown friends!

ALLEGAN, Mich. (AP) — Liquid waste from a paper mill as a binder for rural roads will get a test in Allegan county. Highway officials expect to spread nonsurfaced roads with between 20,000 and 40,000 gallons a day.

Retiring Reporter Recalls Memories

HOUSTON, Mo. (AP) — Retiring after 59 years of reporting the news in this southern Missouri town, C. E. (Deacon) Elmore came up with some memories.

In his last column, he asked, "Do you remember when?"

The only alphabetical organization we knew was RFD? The butcher threw in a mess of liver when we bought meat? A dime's worth of cheese and crackers constituted a lunch? Marriage meant a lifetime contract? Good watermelons sold for a quarter apiece? A $100,000 appropriation by Congress was extravagant?

But the opposition Socialists claimed Adenauer's Christian Democrats suffered a political setback in the election yesterday of a new 200-member parliament in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia, home of the industrial Ruhr.

The Socialists based their claim on the fact the Christian Democrats and their partners in the coalition state government, the Zentrum (Centrist) party, fell two seats short of an absolute majority.

STEELWORKERS TO STUDY NEW WAGE CONTRACT

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Wage Policy Committee of the CIO United Steelworkers meets tomorrow in what many observers believe will be a session to study a second U.S. Steel Corp. proposal for a new contract.

The meeting, called yesterday, will come less than 48 hours before the union's current two-year pact with U.S. Steel expires at midnight Wednesday.

Invoking its power to approve or reject contract proposals, the committee turned thumbs down on a U.S. Steel offer last week. Then, on Saturday, the union and the company resumed negotiations. The talks recessed that same day. Neither side would comment.

Reportedly, the company had offered a second proposed contract to the union. The report was given added weight when the union summoned its Wage Policy Committee.

Before the committee meets at 2 p.m. tomorrow, the 39-member executive board will gather at 10 a.m. This group makes recommendations to the Wage Policy Committee.

Original Offer

U.S. Steel's original offer reportedly would have given steelworkers a 2 1/2-cent an hour wage increase plus improvements in their pension plan and insurance program.

The union hasn't stated publicly what it would consider an acceptable contract. When negotiations opened May 18, the union submitted four proposals—a pay boost, a guaranteed annual wage, improvements in both the pension and insurance plans and other contract changes.

Steelworkers in the basic steel industry now earn an average of between $2.14 and $2.24 an hour. Of the 600,000 in basic steel, 200,000 are employed by U.S. Steel.

Talks with other basic producers also have opened but they usually wait until U.S. Steel has signed a contract, then follow the same pattern.

CLAIM MANDATE FOR ADENAUER BUT SOCIALISTS DISPUTE RESULT

By BRACK CURRY

BONN, Germany, June 28 (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's supporters claimed a fresh mandate today from the German people for his pro-American foreign policy following the nation's first political test of 1954.

But the opposition Socialists claimed Adenauer's Christian Democrats suffered a political setback in the election yesterday of a new 200-member parliament in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia, home of the industrial Ruhr.

The Socialists based their claim on the fact the Christian Democrats and their partners in the coalition state government, the Zentrum (Centrist) party, fell two seats short of an absolute majority.

To Extend Coalition
To increase their voting strength of 90 Christian Democrats deputies and 90 Centrists, Adenauer's party was expected to enlarge the coalition to include some of the Free Democrats, their partner in the national governing coalition who won 25 seats in the state parliament.

The Christian Democrats rolled up 2,855,672 votes, or 41.3 percent of the total of 6,921,739 valid ballots.

The Socialists, bitter opponents of Adenauer's European unity policy, polled 2,387,069 votes (34.5 percent) and won 76 seats. The Communists, who had held 12 seats, lost them all.

Some Facts Clear
Adenauer's Christian Democratic party headquarters here promptly hailed the result as "a positive development for the Christian Democrats foreign and domestic policies."

The Socialists retorted that the Christian Democratic-Centrist coalition lost its majority in parliament while the Socialists picked up eight seats. In the outgoing large-parliament the two parties had 109 of the 216 seats.

Most foreign observers here agreed that the election showed this:

Adenauer's party retained its position as the strongest political force in the nation's biggest state. But it failed in its aim of winning an absolute majority as it did in the federal parliament in 1953.

The fact that Adenauer retained the hard core of his support in this election should help him regain the political initiative after a series of setbacks in the foreign policy field.

IKE, CHURCHILL IN FINAL MEET; SOME SUCCESS ON ASIAN PACT

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill opened the last scheduled meeting of their Washington conference today with prospects of only partial agreement on the decisive Southeast Asian pact issue.

The two men met in the President's office shortly after 10 a.m. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said they were being joined by Foreign Secretary Eden, Secretary of State Dulles and staff advisors.

Meanwhile, House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) and Senate GOP Leader Knowland (Calif) said congressional leaders received from Dulles in Eisenhower's presence this morning a report that made the southeast Asian situation appear "more encouraging." Both said they were not speaking particularly about the Churchill-Eisenhower talks which Dulles discussed briefly with them.

Mixed Success, Failure
Other sources said there had been a blend of successes and failures in the efforts by Eisenhower and Churchill to resolve differences between American and British policies.

Word was spread that a communiqué on the British-American talks might be issued immediately upon the end of the final scheduled session or a short time thereafter. Previously officials had indicated that the earliest release time possible was late this afternoon.

While the meetings have been conducted in the strictest secrecy, it is understood the President and the Prime Minister failed to reach any decisive agreement for quick action on creation of a Southeast Asian alliance against Communist aggression. The United States has been urging a definite timetable. Britain has opposed action so long as Indochina peace negotiations are pending.

At the same time there was reason to believe Eisenhower and Churchill had agreed to press for prompt French ratification of the European Defense Community Treaty under which West Germany would be armed.

Toll From Freak Wave May Reach 7

CHICAGO (AP) — Police and Coast Guard officials believed today the death toll of Saturday's freak tidal wave on Lake Michigan would reach seven.

Bodies of four fishermen who were swept from a pier and two rock jetties into the lake have been recovered. Three fishermen are missing and divers are seeking their bodies at Montrose Harbor.

The huge wave, estimated by witnesses as from 5 to 20 feet high, hit the Lake Michigan shore for a stretch of about 25 miles. It was believed to have been caused by a wind squall, followed by a sudden calm.

had agreed that no effort is too great which promises constructive results of lifting from the world the dangers of an atomic war.

Officials said today's program was subject to change should the President and Prime Minister decide they needed more time to work on the problems which have occupied their attention almost constantly since Churchill arrived here Friday morning. This meant that issuance of a final communiqué could go over until tomorrow.
